Methodist will oppose the motion to enforce the settlement agreement because it believes the United States and Methodist have not reached agreement as to material terms of a settlement. If the government files a motion to stay this long-running case, Methodist will oppose that motion. Methodist requests that the motion hearing previously scheduled for October 5, 2023 (see Dkt. No. 447) be reset at the Court’s earliest convenience, and that the deadline for the parties to confer and file a joint notice regarding the subject motions be reset for ten days in advance of the new hearing date.
